

Orlando Bible Students - Special Study - March 24, 2013

Prophecies of the Kingdom - Isaiah 25:6-9

See also Bible comments for all scripture references

- 1. Before this beautiful mountain is established what does man go through?
Study notes: Isaiah 24:1,19-20 through 25:1-5; Mark 13:19-20; Zechariah 14:3
- 2. Compare the perception of the world kingdoms from man's view and from God's view:
Dan. ch. 2; Daniel ch. 7; Consider some of the key words in Isa. 25:6.
- 3. What is represented in the picture of mountains? What mountain is referred to here?
Luke 23:30 - see comments and references; Isa. 2:2-3; Micah 4:1-2
- 4. Make unto all people a feast of fat things; what does the fat represent? How do we apply it here?
Gen. 4:4; Gen. 45:18; In the second part of Isa. 25:6, the words "feast of wine on the lees" is mentioned.
- 5. Discuss the possible natural and spiritual applications of "wine on the lees" as part of the grand feast. Rev. 17:5-6; Isa. 24:20; Zeph. 3:9
- 6. In verse 7, we are told that a "covering cast over the people" will be destroyed and also "the veil spread over all nations" will be destroyed. What is the covering and what is the veil?
R154:1; R247:4; R894:4; R2330:5; Harvest Gleanings 233:6; R154:1; R247:4; R894:4; Isa. 60:1-3; James 1:17; Gen. 3:23-24
- 7. Considering verses 8 and 9 together, what is the picture we are given concerning man's dominion and relationship to God? Gen. 1:26,28; Psa. 8:6
- 8. How will it be possible for "death to be swallowed up in victory" and the "tears wiped away" and when will this be finalized? Rev. 21:4-7; Rev. 22:17; Joel 3:18; Isa. 35:8-10; Heb. 2:6-9, R86
- 9. Why are we confident that these things will happen as promised?
James 1:17; Isa. 55:10-13; Isa. 65:18; Micah 3:6