

Psalm 63 – Praise & Thirsting for God

Orlando Bible Students Special Study

Sunday May 24, 2015

General References: Psalm 63, 2Samuel 15, 2 Samuel 7-10 & 13-17, Reprint 5785:2, Reprint 5441:1,4,5, Reprint 1390

- 1) Where was David when he composed this Psalm and what was the occasion for him being there?
Psalm 63:1, 2 Samuel 15:13-17

- 2) In verse 1 praising God David says I will seek thee early. What do you suppose he is referring to?

- 3) In verse 1, 5, 8 & 9 David refers to “My Soul”. Why do you suppose he uses this term and how is it applied in each instance? Is there a spiritual application to be applied to the New Creature?
Verse 1- My Soul Thirsteth for Thee
Verse 5-My Soul Satisfied as with marrow and fatness
Verse 8- My Soul followeth hard after thee
Verse 9- Seek My Soul, to destroy it

- 4) David gives one (1) reason for praising God. What is it and how and when does he demonstrate his appreciation? Psalm 63:3,7.

- 5) Referring to Question 4 what should the spirit begotten new creature do to show appreciation to God?

- 6) How do we know that David knew he would be delivered from this experience and that he would prevail?
Psalm 63:7-10, 2Samuel 15:24-30,

- 7) David seems to feel there is value in meditation- What about today – is meditation valuable for us? How can we use meditation on the word of the Lord to increase our faith and praise? 2Peter 1:4, Psalm 40:8, Reprint 1390, Psalm 19 and comments, Psalm 1:2; 77:12; 119:15,16,24; Psalm 143:5; 119:97,104,111; 104:34.